

Chris Renwick Memorial Trophy Nomination Form

Christopher (RD) Renwick represented the Town of Parry Sound at every level of traveling hockey from Novice to Tier II Junior "A". RD was a team leader who was role model to his teammates both on and off the ice. RD's strong work ethic and perseverance helped lead his teams to several All-Ontario and finals appearances. RD was tragically taken from us in a car accident on February 27, 2007 at age 31. The winner of the Chris Renwick Memorial Trophy is someone who, through their dedication and leadership, is considered the most valuable player to their team.
