

Walter McAlister Memorial Trophy Nomination Form Goalie of the Year

Walter grew up on Armstrong St., learning to skate on Peachey's backyard rink and joining Parry Sound Minor Hockey at age 8 as a goalie on the Canadians Squirts. As a Pee Wee he was on the team that traveled to Toronto and also part of the team that won the League Championship. He played on other winning teams during his time with P.S.M.H. in 1976, Jim and Nellie McAlister in memory of their son, Walter, noticed that there was no award for goaltending and decided it would be nice to donate an Annual Award Trophy (outstanding All Star Goalie) in their son Walters name.
